Part I: general

Article 1: purpose and scope of agreement

1.01 The purpose of this agreement is to maintain a harmonious and mutually beneficial relationship between the parties and to set forth herein certain terms and conditions of employment upon which agreement has been reached through collective bargaining.

1.02 The parties to this agreement share a desire to improve the quality of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) and to promote the well-being, and increased efficiency of Members of the bargaining unit to the end that the people of Canada will be well and efficiently served. Accordingly, they are determined to establish, within the framework provided by law, an effective working relationship at all levels of the RCMP in which Members of the bargaining unit are employed.

Article 2: interpretation and definitions

means the approved hours worked before or after a scheduled shift, during time off work (TOW), designated paid holidays (DPH), or regular time off (RTO);

- b. The grievance procedure for a policy grievance by the Employer shall also be composed of a single level, with the grievance presented to an authorized representative of the NPF. The NPF shall inform the Employer of the name, title and address of this representative.

Grievance procedure

15.05 For the purposes of this article, a grievor is a Member, in the case of a group grievance, the grievor is the NPF, or in the case of a policy grievance, the grievor can be the Employer or the NPF.

15.06 No person shall seek by intimidation, by threat of dismissal or by any other kind of threat to cause a grievor to abandon a grievance or refrain from exercising the right to present a grievance, as provided in this collective agreement.

15.07 Pursuant to section 207 of the FPSLRA, the Employer and the NPF recognize the value of informal discussion as a viable and effective means of resolving issues both at the lowest level and as early on as possible. In support of this commitment, the parties to the grievance shall, where appropriate, initiate informal discussions on workplace differences prior to submitting a grievance and at any stage of the grievance process. When the parties to the grievance avail themselves of an informal conflict management system, whether through informal discussions, facilitated discussions, or mediation, it is agreed that the period between the initial discussion and the final response shall not count as elapsed time for the purpose of grievance time limits, including the presentation. Any resolution reached during or as a result of the informal discussions shall be without prejudice to the rights or positions of either party to the grievance with respect to the dispute.

15.08 A grievor wishing to present a grievance at any prescribed level in the grievance procedure, shall transmit this grievance, either by hand delivery or by electronic means, to their immediate supervisor or local officer-in-charge who shall forthwith:

- a. forward the grievance to the representative of the Employer authorized to deal with grievances at the appropriate level, and
- b. provide the grievor with a confirmation of receipt, either by hand delivery or by electronic means, stating the date on which the grievance was received.

15.09 Where the provisions of clause 15.08 cannot be complied with and it is necessary to present a grievance or receipt by mail, the grievance shall be deemed to have been presented on the day on which it is postmarked and it shall be deemed to have been received by the Employer or the grievor on the day it is delivered to the appropriate office of the RCMP or the address shown on the grievance form. Similarly, the Employer shall be deemed to have delivered a reply at any level on the date on which the letter containing the reply is postmarked, but the time limit within which the grievor may present the grievance at the next higher level shall be calculated from the date on which the Employer's reply was delivered to the address shown on the grievance form.

15.10 A grievance shall not be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the fact that it is not in accordance with the form supplied by the Employer.

15.11 Subject to and as provided for in the FPSLRA, a grievor who feels treated unjustly or aggrieved by an action or lack of action by the Employer in the interpretation or application of this collective agreement or an arbitral award is entitled to present a grievance in the manner prescribed in clause 15.08 except that:

- a. where there is another administrative procedure provided by or under any Act of Parliament, other than one provided for in the Canadian Human Rights Act, to deal with the grievor's specific complaint such procedure must be followed, and
- b. a Member is not entitled to present the grievance unless they have the approval of and are represented by the NPF.

15.12 For individual grievances and group grievances, there shall be a maximum of three (3) levels in the grievance procedure. These levels shall be as follows:

- a. Level 1: first level of management;
- b. Level 2: intermediate level; and
- c. Final level: Commissioner or an authorized representative.

No Employer representative may hear the same grievance at more than one (1) level in the grievance procedure.

15.13 The Employer shall designate a representative at each level in the grievance procedure and shall inform each Member to whom the procedure applies of the name or title of the person so designated together with the name or title and address of the immediate supervisor or local officer-in-charge to whom a grievance is to be presented.

15.14 This information shall be communicated to Members by means of notices posted by the Employer in places where such notices are most likely to come to the attention of the Members to whom the grievance procedure applies, or otherwise as determined by agreement between the Employer and the NPF.

15.15 Members must be assisted and/or represented by the NPF when presenting a grievance at any level. The NPF shall have the right to consult with the Employer with respect to a grievance at each or any level of the grievance procedure.

15.16 A grievor may present a grievance to the first level of the procedure in the manner prescribed in clause 15.08, not later than the thirty-fifth (35th) calendar day after the date on which the grievor is notified or on which the grievor first becomes aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance. The Employer may present a policy grievance in the manner prescribed in clause 15.04 not later than the thirty-fifth (35th) calendar day after the date on which the Employer is notified orally or in writing or on which the Employer first becomes aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the policy grievance.

When a grievor submits a grievance electronically via email, the date the email is sent by the grievor is deemed to be the official submission date of the grievance.

15.17 A grievor may present a grievance at each succeeding level in the grievance procedure beyond the first level either:

- a. where the decision or settlement is not satisfactory to the grievor, within fifteen (15) calendar days after that decision or settlement has been conveyed in writing to the grievor by the Employer, or
- b. where the Employer has not conveyed a decision to the grievor within the time prescribed in clause 15.18, within twenty-one (21) calendar days after presentation by the grievor of the grievance at the previous level.

15.18 The Employer shall normally reply to a grievance, either on paper or electronically, at any level of the grievance procedure, except the final level, within fifteen (15) calendar days after the grievance is received, and within thirty (30) calendar days where the grievance is presented at the final level, except in the case of a policy grievance, to which the Employer shall normally respond within thirty-five (35) calendar days.

15.19 The Employer will provide the appropriate representative of the NPF named on the grievance form with a copy of the Employer's decision at each level of the grievance procedure at the same time that the Employer's decision is conveyed to the grievor.

15.20 In determining the time within which any action is to be taken as prescribed in this procedure, designated paid holidays (DPH) shall be excluded.

15.21 The time limits stipulated in this grievance procedure may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the grievor and, where appropriate, the NPF representative, including when parties agree/attempt to enter into informal discussion to attempt to resolve a grievance.

15.22 Where it appears that the nature of the grievance is such that a decision cannot be given below a particular level of authority, any or all the levels except the final level may be eliminated by agreement of the Employer and the grievor, and, where applicable, the NPF.

15.23 A grievor may abandon a grievance by written notice to the immediate supervisor or officer-in-charge.

15.24 Any grievor who fails to present a grievance to the next higher level within the required time limits shall be deemed to have abandoned the grievance unless, due to circumstances beyond the grievor's control, the grievor was unable to comply with the prescribed time limits.

15.25 Where a grievance has been presented up to and including the final level in the grievance procedure with respect to the interpretation or application of a provision of this collective agreement or related arbitral award and the grievance has not been dealt with to the grievor's satisfaction, it may be referred to adjudication in accordance with the provisions of the FPSLRA and Regulations.

15.26 The grievor is not entitled to refer the grievance to adjudication unless the NPF signifies:

- a. its approval of the reference of the grievance to adjudication, and
- b. its willingness to represent the grievor in the adjudication proceedings.

Expedited adjudication

15.27 The parties, the Employer and the NPF, agree that any adjudicable grievance may be referred to the following expedited adjudication process:

- a. At the request of either party, a grievance that has been referred to adjudication may be dealt with through expedited adjudication with the consent of both parties.
- b. When the parties agree that a particular grievance will proceed through expedited adjudication, the NPF will submit to the FPSLREB the consent form signed by the grievor or the bargaining agent.
- c. The parties may proceed with or without an Agreed Statement of Facts. When the parties arrive at an Agreed Statement of Facts it will be submitted to the FPSLREB or to the Adjudicator in advance of or at the hearing.
- d. No witnesses will testify.
- e. The parties agree to jointly request that each expedited adjudication session take place in Ottawa unless the parties and the FPSLREB agree otherwise. The cases will be scheduled jointly by the parties and the FPSLREB and the parties agree to jointly request that the expedited adjudication appear on the FPSLREB schedule.
- f. The parties may agree to present this expedited adjudication solely in writing.
- g. The parties may agree to jointly request that the FPSLREB schedule any oral hearing of the expedited adjudication to be completed within a single day.
- h. The Adjudicator will make an oral determination at the hearing, which will be recorded and initialled by the representatives of the parties. This will be confirmed in a written determination to be issued by the Adjudicator as soon as possible following the hearing. The parties may, at the request of the Adjudicator, vary the above conditions in a particular case.
- i. The Adjudicator's determination will be final and binding on all the parties but will not constitute a precedent. The parties agree not to refer the determination to the Federal Court of Appeal.

Part III: working conditions

Article 21: hours of work

This article does not apply to reservists (see provisions of Part X).

General

21.01 A Member's scheduled hours of work shall not be construed as guaranteeing the Member minimum or maximum hours of work. Meal breaks and rest periods shall be determined according to operational requirements as determined by the Employer and the daily hours of work shall be consecutive.

21.02 A full-time (F/T) Member is required to work an average of two thousand and eighty-seven decimal zero four (2,087.04) hours per year inclusive of hours designated as paid holidays in accordance with Article 23 (Designated Paid Holidays) and paid leave. The Member receives eighty (80) hours' pay at straight-time rate plus eligible allowances per pay period.

21.03 For the purpose of this article and unless specified otherwise:

- a. A week shall consist of seven (7) consecutive days beginning at 00:01 Monday and ending at 24:00 Sunday.
- b. A day shall consist of a twenty-four (24) hour period commencing at 00:01 hours and ending at 24:00.

21.04 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this agreement, the implementation of any variation in hours shall not result in any additional overtime (O/T) work or additional payment by reason only of such variation, nor shall it be deemed to prohibit the right of the Employer to schedule any hours of work permitted by the terms of this agreement.

Day work

21.05 Except as provided for in clauses 21.06 (variable work) and 21.09 (shift work):

- a. The workweek applies to a Member who is assigned by the Employer to work forty (40) hours from Monday to Friday inclusively.

21.12 Where a Member's scheduled shift does not commence and end on the same day, the shift shall be considered for all purposes to have been entirely worked on the day it began. Unscheduled additional hours worked after midnight qualify for payment at the overtime (O/T) rate of the new day.

21.13 Except as provided for in clauses 21.26 and 21.27, the Employer will not schedule a shift within twelve (12) hours of the completion of the Member's previously scheduled shift.

21.14 Provided that sufficient advance notice is given and with the approval of the Member's supervisor, a Member may exchange their shift with another Member if there is no increase in cost to the Employer, and with due consideration to the restrictions outlined in this agreement.

21.15 On exchange of shifts between Members, pursuant to clause 21.14, the Employer shall pay as if no exchange had occurred.

21.16 Due to the time change resulting from Daylight or Standard Savings Time, the duration of a scheduled shift may vary and will be planned for in advance. The number of scheduled hours will be adjusted to maintain the required average of forty (40) hours per week.

21.17 In the event that a sudden duty requirement arises, the Employer will endeavour to seek a qualified volunteer willing to reschedule a shift or a period of regular time off (RTO), or willing to work overtime (O/T).

21.20 Where a Member is redeployed to a declared emergency or extreme circumstance, the Member's home unit work schedule ceases to be in effect seventy-two (72) hours after the start of the redeployment. The redeployment work schedule becomes the new home unit schedule after the first seventy-two (72) hours. Maximum hours of work

21.26 A Member shall not be authorized to work more than sixteen (16) hours consecutively and not more than seventy-two (72) hours in a six (6) consecutive-day period, inclusive of overtime (O/T), unless exceptional circumstances are declared by the Employer.

21.27 When an exceptional circumstance, as defined in clause 2.01, is declared by the Employer, for the first seventy-two (72) hours, a Member may work more than sixteen (16) consecutive hours, and/or up to eighty (80) hours in a seven (7) consecutive-day period, and/or reduce the regular time off (RTO) or time off work (TOW) period to less than eight (8) hours.

25.09 The Employer may authorize a Member to take a meal break with pay at a suitable location during overtime (O/T), or outside a scheduled shift on a designated paid holiday (DPH).

Compensation in cash or lieu time off (LTO)

25.12 Pursuant to the definition of lieu time off (LTO), found in clause 2.01, overtime (O/T) shall be compensated in cash, except that, upon request of a Member and with the approval of the Employer, overtime (O/T) may be compensated in equivalent lieu time off (LTO) credits. Overtime (O/T) while on redeployment cannot be converted to lieu time off (LTO).

25.13 For additional hours worked while away from the home unit, excluding those additional hours worked while on redeployment which shall be compensated in accordance with clause 25.07(a), approval for compensation in lieu time off (LTO) lies with the Employer at the home unit.

25.14 The Employer shall grant lieu time off (LTO) at times convenient to both the Member and the Employer.

25.15 Lieu time off (LTO) credits earned for additional hours worked as overtime (O/T) may accrue in the Member's overtime (O/T) lieu time off (LTO) bank, to a maximum of eighty (80) hours.

25.17 At the request of the Member and with the approval of the Employer, accumulated lieu time off (LTO) may be paid out, up to a maximum of forty (40) hours, once per fiscal year, at the Member's substantive level/rank rate of pay from March 31 of the previous fiscal year.

25.18 Earned but unused lieu time off (LTO) credits may be paid out, at the Member's substantive level/rank rate of pay from March 31 of the previous fiscal year:

- a. to a maximum of eighty (80) hours when the Employer is unable to grant leave due to operational requirements;

- b. to a maximum of eighty (80) hours from each bank, when a Member declares financial hardship; or

25.20 A Member may use their approved lieu time off (LTO) to reconcile hours owed as a result of shift scheduling calculations.

25.21 Both the overtime (O/T) and operational response lieu time off (LTO) banks are portable, to a maximum of eighty (80) hours each on inter- or intra-divisional transfers.

25.22 When transferring out of a Limited Duration Post (LDP) or Isolated Post (IP), all unused operational response lieu time off (LTO) credits in excess of eighty (80) hours will be taken in leave.

26.05 A Member recalled to work from annual leave or lieu time off (LTO) may request a reinstatement of leave for the first and/or second day worked, or they may claim callback overtime (O/T). If a Member is required to work a third or subsequent day, leave for this period will be reinstated.

28.03 For travel on required RCMP business, not on a scheduled workday, the Employer will authorize a Member of the bargaining unit's overtime (O/T) pay for the hours spent in travel in accordance with Article 25 and Article 65.

- b. Where the Employer cannot schedule or reschedule the travel time spent in accordance with (a), the travel time shall be paid in accordance with the applicable rate. If the applicable rate would involve overtime (O/T) pay, the travel time must be approved by the Employer.

28.07 Travel time is considered to have stopped once the Member of the bargaining unit arrives at the overnight location.

28.08 At the Employer's discretion, a Member of the bargaining unit, who reports to duty on an unscheduled shift, may be reimbursed certain expenses related to travel.

The payment of such annual leave does not include allowances (for example, service pay).

36.19 When a Member dies, their estate will be paid an amount equal to the number of hours of earned, but unused, annual leave to the Member's credit, calculated at their substantive base salary on the date of death. The payment of such annual leave does not include allowances (for example, service pay).

36.20 If the termination of employment is for a reason other than a medical discharge or death, and unearned annual leave credits have already been used by the Member, the Employer will recover an amount equivalent to the unearned annual leave credits from any monies owed to the Member, calculated at the Member's substantive base salary on the date of discharge.

Recall to duty from annual leave / lieu time off

Individual grievances

63.02 Subject to and as provided in section 208 of the FPSLRA, a reservist may present an individual grievance to the Employer if they feel aggrieved:

- a. by the interpretation or application, in respect of the reservist, of:
 - i. a provision of a statute or regulation, or of a direction or other instrument made or issued by the Employer, that deals with terms and conditions of employment; or

- a. In order to present a group grievance, the NPF must first obtain the written consent of each of the reservists concerned.
- b. A group grievance shall not be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the fact that the consent is not in accordance with Form 19.

Policy grievances

63.04 Subject to and as provided in section 220 of the FPSLRA, the NPF or the Employer may present a policy grievance in respect of the interpretation or application of the collective agreement or of an arbitral award.

- a. A policy grievance may be presented by the NPF only at the final level of the grievance procedure, to an authorized representative of the Employer. The Employer shall inform the NPF of the name, title and address of this representative.

- b. The grievance procedure for a policy grievance by the Employer shall also be composed of a single level, with the grievance presented to an authorized representative of the NPF. The NPF shall inform the Employer of the name, title and address of this representative.

Grievance procedure

63.05 For the purposes of this article, a grievor is a reservist, in the case of a group grievance, the grievor is the NPF, or in the case of a policy grievance, the grievor can be the Employer or the NPF.

63.06 No person shall seek by intimidation, by threat of dismissal or by any other kind of threat to cause a grievor to abandon a grievance or refrain from exercising the right to present a grievance, as provided in this collective agreement.

63.07 Pursuant to section 207 of the FPSLRA, the Employer and the NPF recognize the value of informal discussion as a viable and effective means of resolving issues both at the lowest level and as early on as possible. In support of this commitment, the parties to the grievance shall, where appropriate, initiate informal discussions on workplace differences prior to submitting a grievance and at any stage of the grievance process. When the parties to the grievance avail themselves of an informal conflict management system, whether through informal discussions, facilitated discussions, or mediation, it is agreed that the period between the initial discussion and the final outcome shall not count as elapsed time for the purpose of grievance time limits, including the presentation. Any resolution reached during or as a result of the informal discussions shall be without prejudice to the rights or positions of either party with respect to the dispute, unless the terms of the resolution state expressly that the resolution is with prejudice to the rights or positions of the parties.

63.08 A grievor wishing to present a grievance at any prescribed level in the grievance procedure, shall transmit this grievance, either by hand delivery or by electronic means, to their reserve coordinator who shall forthwith:

- a. forward the grievance to the representative of the Employer authorized to deal with grievances at the appropriate level, and
- b. provide the grievor with a confirmation of receipt, either by hand delivery or by electronic means, stating the date on which the grievance was received.

63.09 Where the provisions of clause 63.08 cannot be complied with and it is necessary to present a grievance or receipt by mail, the grievance shall be deemed to have been presented on the day on which it is postmarked and it shall be deemed to have been received by the Employer or the grievor on the day it is delivered to the appropriate office of the RCMP or address shown on the grievance form. Similarly, the Employer shall be deemed to have delivered a reply at any level on the date on which the letter containing the reply is postmarked, but the time limit within which the grievor may present the grievance at the next higher level shall be calculated from the date on which the Employer's reply was delivered to the address shown on the grievance form.

63.10 A grievance shall not be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the fact that it is not in accordance with the form supplied by the Employer.

63.11 Subject to and as provided for in the FPSLRA, a grievor who feels treated unjustly or aggrieved by an action or lack of action by the Employer is entitled to present a grievance in the manner prescribed in clause 63.08 except that:

- a. where there is another administrative procedure provided by or under any Act of Parliament, other than one provided for in the Canadian Human Rights Act, to deal with the grievor's specific complaint such procedure must be followed, and
- b. where the grievance relates to the interpretation or application of this collective agreement or an arbitral award, a reservist is not entitled to present the grievance unless they have the approval of and are represented by the NPF.

- a. Level 1: first level of management;
- b. Level 2: intermediate level; and
- c. Final level: Commissioner or an authorized representative.

No Employer representative may hear the same grievance at more than one (1) level in the grievance procedure.

63.13 The Employer shall designate a representative at each level in the grievance procedure and shall inform each reservist to whom the procedure applies of the name or title of the person so designated together with the name or title and address of the reserve coordinator to whom a grievance is to be presented.

63.14 This information shall be communicated to reservists by means of notices posted by the Employer in places where such notices are most likely to come to the attention of the reservists to whom the grievance procedure applies, or otherwise as determined by agreement between the Employer and the NPF.

63.15 Reservists may be assisted and/or represented by the NPF when presenting a grievance at any level. The NPF shall have the right to consult with the Employer with respect to a grievance at each or any level of the grievance procedure.

63.16 A grievor may present a grievance to the first level of the procedure in the manner prescribed in clause 63.08, not later than the thirty-fifth (35th) calendar day after the date on which the grievor is notified or on which the grievor first becomes aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance. The Employer may present a policy grievance in the manner prescribed in clause 63.04 not later than the thirty-fifth (35th) calendar day after the date on which the Employer is notified orally or in writing or on which the Employer first becomes aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the policy grievance.

When a grievor submits a grievance electronically via email, the date the email is sent by the grievor is deemed to be the official submission date of the grievance.

63.17 A grievor may present a grievance at each succeeding level in the grievance procedure beyond the first level either:

- a. where the decision or settlement is not satisfactory to the grievor, within fifteen (15) calendar days after that decision or settlement has been conveyed in writing to the grievor by the Employer, or
- b. where the Employer has not conveyed a decision to the grievor within the time prescribed in clause 63.18, within twenty-one (21) calendar days after presentation by the grievor of the grievance at the previous level.

63.18 The Employer shall normally reply to a grievance, either on paper or electronically, at any level of the grievance procedure, except the final level, within fifteen (15) calendar days after the grievance is received, and within thirty (30) calendar days where the grievance is presented at the final level, except in the case of a policy grievance, to which the Employer shall normally respond within thirty-five (35) calendar days.

63.19 Where a reservist has been represented by the NPF in the presentation of the reservist's grievance, the Employer will provide the appropriate representative of the NPF named on the grievance form with a copy of the Employer's decision at each level of the grievance procedure at the same time that the Employer's decision is conveyed to the grievor.

63.20 In determining the time within which any action is to be taken as prescribed in this procedure, designated paid holidays (DPH) shall be excluded.

63.21 The time limits stipulated in this grievance procedure may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the grievor and, where appropriate, the NPF representative, including when parties agree/attempt to enter into informal discussion to attempt to resolve a grievance.

63.22 Where a reservist's appointment is revoked under subsection 7(3) of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Regulations, 2014, the grievance procedure set forth in this agreement shall apply except that the grievance shall be presented at the final level only.

63.23 Where it appears that the nature of the grievance is such that a decision cannot be given below a particular level of authority, any or all the levels except the final level may be eliminated by agreement of the Employer and the grievor, and, where applicable, the NPF.

63.24 A grievor may abandon a grievance by written notice to their reserve coordinator.

63.25 Any grievor who fails to present a grievance to the next higher level within the required time limits shall be deemed to have abandoned the grievance unless, due to circumstances beyond the grievor's control, the grievor was unable to comply with the prescribed time limits.

Adjudication

63.26 Where a grievance has been presented up to and including the final level in the grievance procedure, and the grievance has not been dealt with to the reservist's satisfaction, it may be referred to adjudication in accordance with the provisions of the FPSLRA and Regulations.

63.27 Where a grievance that may be presented by a reservist to adjudication is a grievance relating to the interpretation or application in respect of the reservist of a provision of this agreement or an arbitral award, the grievor is not entitled to refer the grievance to adjudication unless the NPF signifies:

- a. its approval of the reference of the grievance to adjudication, and
- b. its willingness to represent the grievor in the adjudication proceedings.

- b. When the parties agree that a particular grievance will proceed through expedited adjudication, the NPF will submit to the FPSLREB the consent form signed by the grievor or the bargaining agent.
- c. The parties may proceed with or without an Agreed Statement of Facts. When the parties arrive at an Agreed Statement of Facts it will be submitted to the FPSLREB or to the Adjudicator in advance of or at the hearing.
- d. No witnesses will testify.

The cases will be scheduled jointly by the parties and the FPSLREB and the parties agree to jointly request that the expedited adjudication appear on the FPSLREB schedule.
- f. The parties may agree to present this expedited adjudication solely in writing.
- g. The parties may agree to jointly request that the FPSLREB schedule any oral hearing of the expedited adjudication to be completed within a single day.
- h. The Adjudicator will make an oral determination at the hearing, which will be recorded and initialled by the representatives of the parties. This will be confirmed in a written determination to be issued by the Adjudicator as soon as possible following the hearing. The parties may, at the request of the Adjudicator, vary the above conditions in a particular case.

3. A pay increment will not be deferred when a Member takes maternity or parental LWOP.
4. If a Member was discharged as a Cst. and is later re-engaged as a Cst., their previous service will be counted in determining the date of their future pay increments within the Cst. rank.

Memorandum of Agreement on Supporting RCMP Member Wellness Through the Joint Development of a Member Wellness Framework

This Memorandum of Agreement (MoA) is to give effect to the understanding reached between the Employer, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP), and the National Police Federation (NPF) (hereafter referred to as “the parties”) regarding issues of Member¹ wellness.

The parties agree that the existing uncapped, as needed, when needed sick leave provisions, in place since 1978, are different from other police forces, and employees in the core public administration. The parties commit to working together over the life of this first collective agreement to review sick leave and disability management provisions. Any future proposed changes related to long-term disability insurance must be (i) endorsed by, (ii) in accordance with the Terms of Reference of, and (iii) per the recommendation of the RCMP’s Insurance Advisory Committee (IAC).

The parties are permitted to use the information gathered in these discussions to develop their respective bargaining proposals for the negotiations of the subsequent (that is, second) collective agreement for Members. The existing approach will remain in place for the duration of the first collective agreement to ensure income support for ill/injured Members.

Appendix C
